Statement on Interstate System Draws Loud Protest

EXPERTS OF 17 OF WORLD'S SHIPPING POWERS HAMMER OUT DETAILS FOR C. A. S. C. U.

BULLETIN

London (AP)—The 18-nation Suez conference ended tonight with a hint from Pakistan, a holdout, that it might join the Western-sponsored Cooperative Assn. of Suez Canal Users, already assured majority backing.

London (AP)—Experts of 17 of the world's shipping powers agreed today on the form and timing of an approach to the United Nations to solve the Suez Canal crisis.

They hammered out the accord after the final touches to a plan setting up the "Cooperative Assn. of Suez Canal Users" CASCU to protect the rights of the maritime nations in the canal Egypt took over July 26.

Only Pakistan, of the 18 nations in conference here since Wednesday, stayed away from the experts' meeting. The Pakistani delegation, which regards the majority approach as too much like an ultimatum to Egypt, said it could not attend without instructions from Karachi.

Iowa Farmers Give President Huge Welcome

Boone, Iowa (AP)—At the crossroads in Iowa, where the farmers park their shiny cars in long lines down the side roads, they seem to like President Eisenhower.

This is the corn-hog farm belt, where Democratic politicians have been saying there is a revolt against the Eisenhower administration's flexible price support policies.

Yesterday the farm people turned out by the thousands to wave and smile and exclaim over Ike and Mamie as they drove 60 miles from Des Moines to this birthplace of Mrs. Eisenhower. If the men were sometimes indifferent to the passage down the concrete highway of a presidential candidate, the women were not.

Almost without fail they turned to each other in squealing delight after the presidential car with its open sky dome had passed to exclaim "Oh, he waved at me."

Eisenhower, getting into the swing of campaigning, showed a definite taste for it. If there was a hand to shake, he shook it at the airport or on the lawn of his wife's old family home here.

Get-Acquainted Is Theme of Assembly Program at High

Warren High students enjoyed a double assembly staged first period this morning. Tom McCune, emceed the Student Council's annual Get-Acquainted program.

The first part of the assembly consisted of four scenes showing what takes place in home room, math, English and history classes in "Lilydale High School." Those taking part were: Pat Ross, Henry Lamm, Jim Mathis, Stanley Lindberg, John Carnigliano, Beth Francis, Nancy Ennis, Becky Norris, Jerry Martin, Ann Putnam, and Jane Harrington.

The second part gave students a chance to "Get Acquainted" with Warren High School. Pat Ross gave a short history of the school, followed by Carol Briggs, secretary of Student Council, who introduced new teachers. Fran Wooster, president of Council, gave its history, including its purposes. Fran then introduced members of Council and administered the Council Pledge to them.

To close the program, cheerleaders led several cheers and songs, closing with the Alma Mater and the traditional "See You at the Game!"

Nancy Curtis showed the grand champion Jersey cow yesterday at the first State Junior Dairy Show at Harrisburg. She won the purple ribbon after defeating 44 other Jersey entries in the show.

Nancy, a member of the Lottsville-Columbus 4-H Club and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Curtis of Columbus, won the honors with her three year old 4-H club cow. Previously, this cow had been named reserve champion Jersey at the Northwest District 4-H Dairy Round-up at Meadville.

Nancy's sister, Amy, and Ken Downey from Corry were the other two 4-H exhibitors from Warren County.

Only calves that were shown at the district 4-H shows and were awarded blue ribbons under the Danish system of judging were eligible to enter the State Junior Dairy Show. Also, each animal had to be shown by its owner. Over 250 dairy animals representing the five major dairy breeds were entered.

Adlai Makes Speedy Reply To Ike's Talk

Washington (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson contends President Eisenhower related "only half the facts" about the global peace picture and "indicted churchmen and political leaders the world over" in dismissing Stevenson's proposal for ending H-bomb tests.

In a speedy reply to his GOP opponent, the Democratic presidential nominee last night told a cheering campaign audience at nearby Silver Spring, Md., that in discussing the international situation Eisenhower "left out any mention of the ominous tensions which today mark Africa and the Middle East."

Stevenson addressed an overflow crowd in the 2,300-seat auditorium of Montgomery Blair High School just 24 hours after Eisenhower had delivered a nationwide radio-television address giving a generally optimistic report on administration efforts to achieve enduring world peace.

Stevenson's talk was piped over a public address system to another crowd, about equaling that in the auditorium, seated outside in a football stadium.

Perhaps the greatest applause came when, after dealing with the global situation, he accused the Eisenhower administration of not pushing hard enough for enactment of a program of federal aid for education.

"First," he said, "the President expressed this country's passion for peace. He did so in a manner befitting his office. He spoke for all of us."

"Second, the President gave us a reassuring picture of progress and peace in the world today. I think it unfortunate that he chose to state his case with only half the facts."

Young Girl and a Man Have Close Calls in Accidents

A young girl and a man had a narrow escape yesterday when vehicle accidents occurred within inches of where they were standing.

Ten-year-old Elsie Matulis of 1 Plum street was wheeling her bicycle north across Pennsylvania avenue at 12:30 p. m. Thursday when a truck wheeled left onto the avenue from North South St. and struck the bike.

Elsie didn't let go as the truck's right front fender brushed the bicycle and she was pulled over with it. Taken to Warren General Hospital and x-rayed the young lady was found to be shaken up but hardly bruised.

Truck driver was Lewis R. Casper, Jr., 30, of Erie.

Second mishap almost put a man in the hospital while another was sent to jail for leaving the scene of an accident.

ATOM "CURB" PARLEY PAST FIRST HUDDLE

United Nations, N. Y. (AP)—The conference to create an international atomic-peace agency settled down to details of organizing today after getting past its first huddle on the inevitable question of admitting Communist China. The Red Chinese question was expected to be raised again, however, before the five-week meeting ends.

The conference coordination committee scheduled a meeting today to elect a chairman and recommend a conference timetable.

The committee is made up of the 12 countries that drafted the proposed constitution for the atomic agency in Washington earlier this year.

The debate on China took place shortly after the conference began yesterday. Georgi Zarubin, Soviet ambassador to Washington, argued that the Communist Chinese government should be present for the conference and in the agency as representative of "600 million peaceful people."

Zarubin drew support from 11 of the 80 nations on hand—India, Syria, Czechoslovakia, Indonesia, Ceylon, Afghanistan, the Ukraine, Hungary, Poland, Romania and White Russia.

The Soviet Union, India and other nations already had expressed dissatisfaction with a provision of the proposed constitution for the uranium-sharing agency that bars the Chinese Communists by limiting membership to the 87 countries in the U. N. and its specialized agencies.

Nationalist Chinese Delegate T. F. Tsiang opposed Zarubin, saying, "My government is the only legitimate government of China."

South Korea and Paraguay backed him up.

Steelworkers' Chief Is Given Hike In Salary

Los Angeles (AP)—The United Steelworkers of America have given President David J. McDonald a $10,000 present in the form of a salary raise to $50,000 a year.

The USW convention, in its stormiest session, also voted yesterday to raise dues $2 a month for the union's 1,200,000 members.

Dues were hiked from $3 a month to $5 after an hour and a half of hotly debated in which one spokesman from the floor, Len Taylor of Kokomo, Ind., told McDonald: "I don't think you need the $10,000."

"I'm not worth it," McDonald snapped tartly. "The last contract proves it."

The irony was not lost on the majority of delegates and the $10,000 increase was overwhelmingly approved. The contract McDonald referred to won the steelworkers an average of 46-cent hourly pay boost over three years.

The vote on the dues increase was much closer, with three votes being taken, one by voice, one by raising hands and finally, a standing vote. McDonald rejected a motion for a roll call and declared the measure passed.

Backers of the dues increase proposals said half of the $2 will go to local union treasuries.

The delegates also voted $10,000 raises for Vice President Howard R. Hague and Secretary Treasurer I. W. Abel, making their salaries $35,000 each.

Thirty district directors were boosted $4,000 to an annual $16,000.

Four Members of Family Are Found Unconscious

Tarentum (AP)—Four members of the Stephen Bilinski family of nearby Brackenridge are alive today thanks to the quick action of a relative who found them overcome by gas fumes.

The Bilinskies—Stephen, 42, Jean, 35, Dinne, 8, and Carol Jean, 5—were found unconscious last night by Mrs. Bilinski's mother, Mrs. Adeline Christopher of nearby New Kensington.

Mrs. Christopher went to the Bilinski home after her daughter phoned that she and Carol Jean were ill. Firemen revived the family and took them to Allegheny Hospital, Natrona, for observation.

Aid to Sophomores

In the above Timesphoto, Editor Carol Briggs confers with Principal Joseph Passaro concerning the 1956-57 issue of the Warren High School Student Council Handbook, published this week and distributed to sophomores. Working with Carol on the handbook committee were Pat Dangel, Norma Sponsler, Dorothy Wallin, Ann Wendelboe, Pat Zaffino, Becky Norris, Barb Greenwald, Sandy E. Johnson, Betty DeLong, Cynthia Parks, with Diane Dobbs and Marga Morrison as artists; Miss Doris Smith and John Stachowiak, faculty advisors. Purpose of the little publication is to acquaint students, especially sophomores, with their school, its Student Council, its activities, recognized clubs, awards, library, faculty, musical organizations, school publications, and other information. Because of data on courses and credits received, both students and parents may benefit from study of the handbook.

Gideon Speakers To Appear in 23 Churches of the Borough And Rural Areas This Weekend

The following information about the observance of "Gideon Day" in Warren, Sunday was received today from Roy Grove, of Bradford, former well known resident of Warren for eight years when he was district manager of the Bell Telephone Company:

This coming Lord's day, September 23, will be known as Gideon day when Gideon speakers will appear in 23 churches of Warren and vicinity.

The Gideons, an organization of Christian businessmen, was founded in 1899 at Janesville, Wis., for the purpose of winning men and women for the Lord Jesus Christ, through personal testimony and personal work together with the placing of God's Holy Word in hotels, hospitals, schools and other institutions and public places.

This ministry was started here in the United States in a very small way. Today it covers practically the entire world.

The 16,870 Gideons in the U. S. and Canada are of the firm belief that God's Holy Word contains the mind of God, the state of man, the way of salvation, the doom of sinners and the happiness of believers. That it contains light to direct you, food to support you, and comfort to cheer you; that it is the traveler's map, the pilgrim's staff, the pilot's compass, the soldier's sword, and the Christian's charter.

The Bradford Camp of Gideons was organized in September, 1941, and during the past 15 years they have distributed in the four counties of Warren, McKean, Potter and Cameron the following: 1827 Bibles; 24714 Youth Testaments; 487 Nurses Testaments; 2085 Service Testaments; 304 Hospital Testaments; 424 Ther Testaments; 29,941 total.

A banquet commemorating the 15th anniversary of the Bradford camp will be held Saturday at 6:00 p. m. at the Warren YWCA. Speaker for this occasion will be the state president of the association, Clarence H. Gilkie, Jr., of Butler, Bernard Olson, president of the Bradford camp, will act as toastmaster.

Gideons from Erie, Jamestown, Olean, DuBois and Butler will be on hand to assist the Bradford camp in this event which is known in their organization as a "Gideon Field Day."

All the work of the Gideons is done under the authority of Isaiah 55:11.

'Save Route 6' To Be Discussed in Talk To Service Clubs

Attorney Murray Garber of Bradford, legal counsel for Save Route 6 Association, will be in Warren on Wednesday, October 10th, to outline steps being taken to preserve and improve Route 6.

Attorney Garber will speak at a service club-sponsored dinner meeting at YWCA with Kiwanis, Lion and Rotary members inviting borough and county officials, plus business and industrial leaders to be their guests.

Garber has done considerable research into problems confronting Save Route 6 Association and is expected to give a comprehensive report of the battle to date against Democratic Governor George Leader's attempt to supplant and ignore Route 6 with an interstate system crossing mid-Pennsylvania between Stroudsburg and Sharon.

Harry Garvin of Bradford, Save Route 6 chairman, will accompany Garber.

WARREN SPOKESMAN INSISTS NORTHERN TIER RESIDENTS FAVOR LIMITED ACCESS PLAN

"The people who reside in the northern tier of Pennsylvania are in favor of keeping Route 6 on the Federal Interstate System of Highways even though the towns along the road would be by-passed and there would be limited access to the route."

Joseph H. Defrees, Chairman of the Transportation Committee of the Warren Area Chamber of Commerce, made this statement today in disagreement with State Secretary of Highways Joseph Lawler who yesterday said that the majority of residents in this area were opposed to a limited access road.

The Warren spokesman pointed out that existing roads and access roads leading into the Interstate Highways will very adequately take care of the towns along the main route and that no town along Route 6 would be isolated or suffer if the Route became limited access. He said that this has been the case all over the country where such highways have already been built.

Mr. Defrees said that Warren business and industrial leaders are supporting the "Save Route 6 Committee" and have already contributed more than $1,000 to the group to carry on the fight. He reported that some 10,000 citizens have signed petitions asking Governor Leader to withdraw his request for the removal of Route 6 from the Interstate System and the substitute of a Sharon to Stroudsburg road.

Officials of the Save Route 6 committee revealed that a delegation has been ready to go to Harrisburg for weeks to present these petitions but have been unable to obtain an appointment with Governor Leader. The committee has pointed out to the northern tier counties the meaning of limited access and by-passing and the people who are near Route 6 know that they have more to gain than to lose from an Interstate Highway in their area.

The Save Route 6 Committee, through a study of statistics, has proved that towns located near a limited access road, benefits with increased business for merchants and increased industrial development from plants who want the advantages of the most modern highways.

Mr. Defrees added that Northern Pennsylvania's tourist business will increase with the addition of Route 6 on the Interstate System as tourists seeking an area for vacationing will select one into which the best highways are available.

The scenic beauty of Route 6 could not possibly be of less value with an Interstate System in the opinion of the committee which pointed out that Route 611 through the Poconos is already a multi-lane road and is scheduled for inclusion in the Interstate program.

Route 6 was established as a part of the National System of Interstate Highways in 1947; only recently did the Pennsylvania Department of Highways propose that it be removed in favor of a road from Sharon to Stroudsburg. The Sharon-Stroudsburg route was authorized by the state legislature to be a toll road and not to be built with federal funds.

The committee also points out that Route 6 is directly midway between the New York throughway and the Pennsylvania Turnpike thus making it the logical geographical location for the Interstate Road.

Navy Sets December 8 for Examinations In the N. R. O. T. C.

VADM. James A. Halloway, Jr., Chief of Naval Personnel, announced today that the 11th annual national competitive examinations for the Navy's Reserve Officer Training Corps will be given to interested high school seniors on December 8. Application forms are now available and must be received before November 17, he added.

Designed to supplement the officer output of the Naval Academy, the NROTC program makes it possible for a young man to earn a commission while studying at the civilian college of his choice which has an NROTC unit. All tuition, fees and books are furnished by the Navy, and the student receives an annual retainer of $600 for four years. During the summer the student goes on fascinating training cruises as a midshipman. After completing the usual four-year college course, he is commissioned in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps and goes on active duty with the Navy's fighting fleets. For those who apply and qualify, immediate assignment to flight training will open new careers in Naval Aviation.

High school seniors and graduates between the ages of 17 and 21 may apply for the NROTC aptitude test. Those who make a qualifying score will be given a rigid physical exam early in 1957. From the pool of qualified young men remaining in competition, approximately 2,000 will be selected to begin their naval careers next September.

The NROTC college training program is also open to enlisted men on active duty with the Navy and Marines. Separate quotas are established for applicants from within these services.

Application forms are available at all high schools, colleges, Navy Recruiting Stations or from the Chief of Naval Personnel, Washington 25, D. C.

AT THE THEATRES

In "Showani Junction," starring Ava Gardner and Stewart Granger at the Library Theatre, starting Sunday, a compelling motion picture of explosive passion and dramatic conflict has been made of John Masters' widely-read novel.

Since this story, centering on an Anglo-Indian girl torn between her love for three men of widely contrasting personalities, is set in the exotic, mysterious and violence-torn locale of post-war Pakistan, M-G-M sent its stars and a location company more than half way around the world to give a striking authenticity to the unusual back-grounds of Hindu, Moslem and Sikh customs and activities, vividly brought to life by the CinemaScope cameras and latest photographic, color processes.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Editor Warren Times-Mirror,
Warren, Penn'a.

Dear Mr. Editor:

It will be greatly appreciated if you will print in your paper this letter for and in the interest of the taxpayers of Warren County. Mr. Lewis L. Crippen of Youngsville, Pa. was elected minority County Commissioner in the election year of 1955 and took office January 1, 1956. I, the Democrats and many Republicans voted for this gentleman with the idea in mind that he would make an ideal County official and would well serve the interest of the taxpayers as a whole. I and those who are taxed in order that he is paid a salary for his services are informed that from the very first day he took office has flagrantly shirked his duties. I have been told by several taxpayers that he spends very little time on the job, so that his continuous absence prevents the Board to promptly and properly discharge the duties of that office. Taxpayers who visit the Commissioners office with matters of importance to be solved, discover Mr. Crippen not present, making it impossible for the transaction of any business, and of course it creates much inconvenience. It is evident that Commissioner Crippen is devoting much of his time to other ventures, yet he accepts his salary check regularly. I, and many others feel that he should resign his position as minority Commissioner and permit the appointment of someone who will serve the interest of the taxpayers and permit the Board of County Commissioners of our county to carry on the duties of that office as they should be.

I feel that the Democratic leaders of Warren County who were instrumental for the selection of Mr. Lewis Crippen for the office, if they are aware of the situation as now exists, should make the fact known to the members of the Democratic party and the taxpayers as a whole who foot the bill. In the event they are ignorant of the facts, they should consult with the Republican members of the Commission and obtain the true facts. I demand an answer from the local leaders of the Democratic party in our county.

A TAXPAYER.

LETTER FROM STEVENSON

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bancroft, 117 Beatty street, have a letter that they have stored away among prized keepsakes. It was a note of appreciation from Democratic Presidential candidate Adlai Stevenson, in acknowledgement of a congratulatory telegram sent him when he was nominated at the Chicago convention. Postmarked 1728 L Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., the letter says: "Dear Mr. and Mrs. Bancroft: So many thanks for your telegram and for the very generous encouragement. I am most grateful, and so is Jim Finnegan. Cordially, Adlai E. Stevenson."

BROUGHT TO HOSPITAL

Titusville Herald: A mentally deranged district farmer—armed with a shotgun and described as potentially dangerous—was apprehended peacefully yesterday around noon, climaxing a 30-hour search. The 57-year-old Centerville, Rd. man, whose wife said he suffered from delusions that a "gang was out to get him" and had threatened to "blow his own head off," was talked into surrendering by a State Trooper who had been alerted by a tip. Last night the farmer was committed to the State Hospital at North Warren after undergoing examination by two district doctors. Prior to 1942, the man had been treated and released from three out-of-state mental institutions. He was picked up by Trooper Kolsapfel of the Meadville substation in front of the Wentworth Auto Sales at Mt. Hope where he was sitting in his car.

Things are really humming these days in the YMCA boys' department, what with the fall and winter program swinging into line and the new Monis' Club endeavoring to its bit in the way of Family Nights, service and education.

First big activity of the new season was the Carnival held last Friday night, when the fathers, mothers, sons, and a few sisters turned out for a total of 86 persons.

Everything went off just as scheduled, with 12 different games in operation; a new shuffleboard unveiled and out into action by Bud Carlson, president of the Barbershop Chorus, whose donation made the new equipment possible; Roy Schneck on hand with his roving mike for interviews; Connie LaFrance snapping pictures; and a short swim as another special.

Club advisors were on hand to give outlines of their plans for the year, including Mrs. Addison Scholes, in charge of archery; Bob Gotsch, instructor for the Junior Rifle Club; and Paul Mahaffy, who conducts the BB rifle matches.

Finally, and by no means of lesser importance, were the refreshments served by Monis' Club members: Mrs. Robert Geiger, Mrs. James Ruhlman, Mrs. Eldo DeLong and Mrs. McClain.

Pirates Ready To Shatter Pennant Hopes of Dodgers

Pittsburgh (P)—Bobby Bragan promises his Pittsburgh Pirates will feed Brooklyn some of the same bitter medicine that dropped Milwaukee one full game off the National League pace.

"We're ready to give Brooklyn more of the same," said Bragan after yesterday's exciting 2-1 victory over the Braves in 10 innings. "We ought to beat them at least three out of the seven games."

Ronnie Kline faces Sal Maglie in tonight's Forbes Field opener of a four-game series here. The Pirates will follow with Vern Law against Carl Erskine or Roger Craig Saturday afternoon.

In the Sunday game, which will be watched by a sellout crowd of 35,000 plus on "gift day," Bragan will call on the Veteran Red Munger to face Don Newcombe, the Dodgers' 25-game winner. The Pirate pitcher Monday night will be Bob Friend who beat Milwaukee yesterday with a magnificent four-hitter. The Dodgers aren't set for a Monday pitcher.

The Pirates hold the key to the pennant race as the Dodgers must play them in seven of their remaining games, four at Forbes Field and the final three next weekend in Brooklyn. The Dodgers' other games are with the Phillies Tuesday and Wednesday.

Bragan said he would start Friend in two games against the Dodgers—Monday and next Friday. "If we're tied 1-1 in the ninth I'll have him in the bullpen tonight," Bragan added.

SYLVANIA PROPOSAL

A release from the Public Relations Department of Sylvania in New York says: A proposal by Sylvania Electric Products Inc., to acquire the business of Argus Cameras, Inc., has been approved by the Argus Board of Directors and will be submitted shortly to the Argus shareholders for approval, the two companies announced jointly today. The announcement was made in a joint statement by Don G. Mitchell, Chairman and President of Sylvania, and Robert E. Lewis, President of Argus. They stated that Argus would become an autonomous Sylvania division, headed by Mr. Lewis and retaining the present Argus organization, with headquarters in Ann Arbor, Mich.

Presley Compared To Famous Greek Statues of Apollo

By EDDIE LEE

Tempe, Ariz. (P)—Rock 'n' roll singer Elvis Presley today was described by an art professor as a "dead ringer" for the gods of the golden age of Greek art.

Famous Greek statues of Apollo and Hermes show a strong resemblance to Presley, even to the duck bill haircut and sideburns, said Prof. Harry Wood, head of the art department at Arizona State College at Tempe.

"The twitch and twist, after all, made Greek art popular in Greece," Wood said. "The Greeks were the first to capture it in stone and break away from the stiffness of Egyptian art."

"A comparison of Presley in action with photos of well-known Greek statues shows remarkable similarities," he said.

One of the most striking is an early work known as the "Charioteer of Delphi," he said.

"It has the same heavy jaw, Greek Nose, thick lips and half-lowered eyelids as Presley. It has the same somewhat proud adolescent look of a young hero."

Presley is the "revival of a Greek archetype" often found in the entertainment world, he said. Others are Joan Crawford and Gregory Peck.

Apollo, the professor, said, was the "god, sponsor and patron" of Greek singers "who must have had a style similar to that of Presley."

"The Greek singers combined the athletic or masculine Doric influence with the femininity of the Ionic, or near eastern Greek, music."

Norway Singers Appearing Here Nov. 26

A famous European choir, a noted American baritone, and a piano virtuoso will be enjoyed this winter by the 400 members of the Jaycee concert series. Names and dates of the coming attractions were announced today by committee co-chairmen Jerry Huber and Lawrence Krespan.

The Singing Boys of Norway, one of the most famous European choirs of boys and young men, will appear in concert on Monday, November 26 to open the local series. On January 9, Boris Goldovsky, brilliant and affable master of ceremonies for the "Opera News of the Air" will bring his "Piano Portraits" to Warren, and on February 13, local members will hear the world famous singer, William Warfield in recital.

Mr. Warfield has made over 300 appearances in recital and as soloist with major symphony orchestras since his debut in 1950. He achieved additional fame for his rendition of "Ole Man River" in the MGM movie production of "Showboat" and toured the United States and Europe in the role of "Porgy" in Gershwin's opera, "Porgy and Bess."

The Singing Boys of Norway, organized in 1927, have given more than 2,000 concerts all over Europe, singing three times at the International Music Festival at Salzburg, Austria. In 1952 they toured the United States with great success and are now making their second American tour under the sponsorship of the Ambassador of Norway in the United States, His Excellency, Wilhelm Morgenstern.

The young singing Vikings usually appear first in sailor suits, then change into gay Norwegian national costumes with rich em-broderies in red, blue, yellow and green. The choir has become famous for its unusually fine soloists and for its distinctive Scandinavian "flavor".

Boris Goldovsky in his "Piano Portrait" covers practically the whole field of piano literature from Scarlatti to Bartok. The program is a great favorite with lay audiences as well as with teachers and students. In these performances, which are interspersed with fascinating and humorous information, Goldovsky makes the music come alive for his audience.

Hal Boyle Lists Some Facts and Fancies He Might Never Know If He Failed to Open His Mail

By HAL BOYLE
New York (AP) Odd facts and fancies a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

That one way to reduce your dental expenses is to keep your mouth shut. If you breathe through your mouth, you dry out your porcelain fillings and they don't last as long.

That more than half the people who have to get a tooth drilled now ask for a local anesthetic.

That there are 37,863 local postmasters in the United States, all of them now supplied with ball point pens.

That Edward Fields, a custom rug manufacturer, has trained Koko, his French poodle, to lift the receiver when the phone rings and bark a greeting.

That if you can't afford to give your wife a diamond-studded wrist watch on her birthday, you might surprise her with a clepsydra. It operates like an hour glass but uses water instead of sand to tell the time.

That a nationwide safety check showed one out of every 10 cars on the highway has defective front or rear lights.

That young newspaper reporters, although more likely to have a college degree than older reporters, are poorer spellers.

That the nation's 30 million anglers spend an average of $90 a year each trying to land that "one that got away."

That a survey showed men highly satisfied with their jobs turned out less work than those mildly discontented with their jobs.

That if you're looking for a field less competitive than the one you're in, here's a tip: the musicians' local here lists only one qualified performer for each of the following instruments—clavoline, bandoline, bandoneon, flugal horn, mandola, mandolite and viola de gamba.

That if you want to get out of a dull social engagement gracefully say, "I'm suffering from cephalalgia." All this means is you have a headache — but you get more sympathy.

That all us palefaces need the lesson of tolerance exemplified in an old American Indian prayer:

"Forbid that I should judge any man until I have walked two months in his moccasins tracks."

That just 20 years ago young college engineering graduates were glad to get jobs at $120 a month. Now they often start at more than that a week.

That the American cowboy originated in the old East, not the old West. Dutch patroons contemptuously applied the term "cowboys" in 1766 to settlers in the Hudson River highlands, 65 miles from Broadway.

School Heads Says Dist. of Columbia Acted Too Hastily

Washington (AP) — The president of the District of Columbia Board of Education expressed belief that Washington would have been wiser to go slower in integrating white and Negro pupils in its public schools.

C. Melvin Sharpe so testified as a House Dist. of Columbia subcommittee, made up principally of Southerners, opened hearings on effect of integration here.

Outside the committee room, an official of the National Assn. for Advancement of Colored People predicted the investigation will likely cost the Democratic party the votes of many Negroes.

Sharpe gave his opinion after the subcommittee counsel, William Gerber of Memphis, Tenn., read into the record a long series of figures. Gerber said these show that after integration, pupils in predominantly Negro schools scored much lower in word meaning and arithmetic placement tests than those in predominantly white schools.

Washington schools were integrated in the single 1954-55 school year, following the Supreme Court decision that racial segregation in public schools violates the Constitution.

Sharpe said the board voted 6-1 for immediate integration. As president, he said, he could not vote but would have voted for "more moderation."

He said that he knew of no outside pressure for immediate integration but he did recall reading in newspapers that President Eisenhower advocated that Washington, as the federal city, would lead the way.

"Present events indicate that if we had been more moderate we would have succeeded better," Sharpe said.

Clarence Mitchell, director of the NAACP in Washington, told newsmen that if the hearing continues, "It is not going to do any good to the Democratic party."

The Chicago White Sox won its 1956 season series against the Cleveland Indians, 15 games to 7.

FIRST FROST

In connection with reports of the first snow of the season as carried in Thursday's paper, the following from The New York Times makes interesting reading:

First frost comes, back in the hills, and the fox parks in the thin moonlight, the owl asks its questions of the darkness. Autumn creeps in, reconnoitering the valleys and exploring the treetops. Cricket and katydid, silent in the first frosty evening, return as the chill abates and are soon so loud again that one knows they are hurrying to complete unfinished mating calls before the deep frosts of October put an end to their season.

Thus turns the season, in ripeness and morning mist, in a midday sky so deep, so clear that one can see halfway into forever. First frost clears the air as though to enhance the shortening span of daylight and make of the abbreviated evening a time of cool delight. And dawn gleams with spider webs spread among the tall grasses and weed stems as though to trap the tagends of summer.

But summer is going fast. It lingers only a hilltop here and there, in a few scattered hours and days. In all green things there is a response, if not an actual knowledge and awareness. Milkweed pods now turn to silver and soon will burst into silk. There is an occasional, tentative flash of red and yellow in the maple groves. Roadsides grasses ripen seedheads. Squirrels swarm through hickory and walnut trees, and chipmunks gather thistledown for winter nests. Crows and jays are more insistent as the songsters begin to move southward. Beetles are sluggish and wasps are a trace less truculent.

Frost has touched the hills and the change sets in. The noon shadow shows it, and the long evening light. The color of autumn and the fall of the leaf, the blaze that is October, will soon be with us again.

WHY YOU SHOULD JOIN THE YWCA

Announcement that the Warren YWCA is launching its annual membership enrollment next Monday brings to mind several reasons why women and girls of the area should get in line to support this worthwhile organization.

The YW is a meeting place for women of all faiths, united in a common bond and finding pleasure in Christian association apart from their regular church groups. . . . The "Y" provides a fine program for girls of Beaty and the High School; and continues to provide programs for girls and women by way of various clubs. . . . The program committee is offering at least one major event each month, a Ladies' Day Out program for six weeks this fall, and many other classes. . . . And, finally, the "Y" is a place to meet all your friends.

AN INSPIRATION?

According to the gossip mills, some of the boys who cater to the teen-age entertainment trade are proposing what they believe could be the smash tie-up of the century.

They want Elvis Presley, who "sings" while he writhes as if seeking to escape a cobra's embrace, to do the movie life story of the late James Dean, a talented young actor who in death is getting more attention than he did in life.

Putting these two teen-age "brushes" together obviously would be an inspiration equal to running "Gone With the Wind" and "Birth of a Nation" as a double feature.

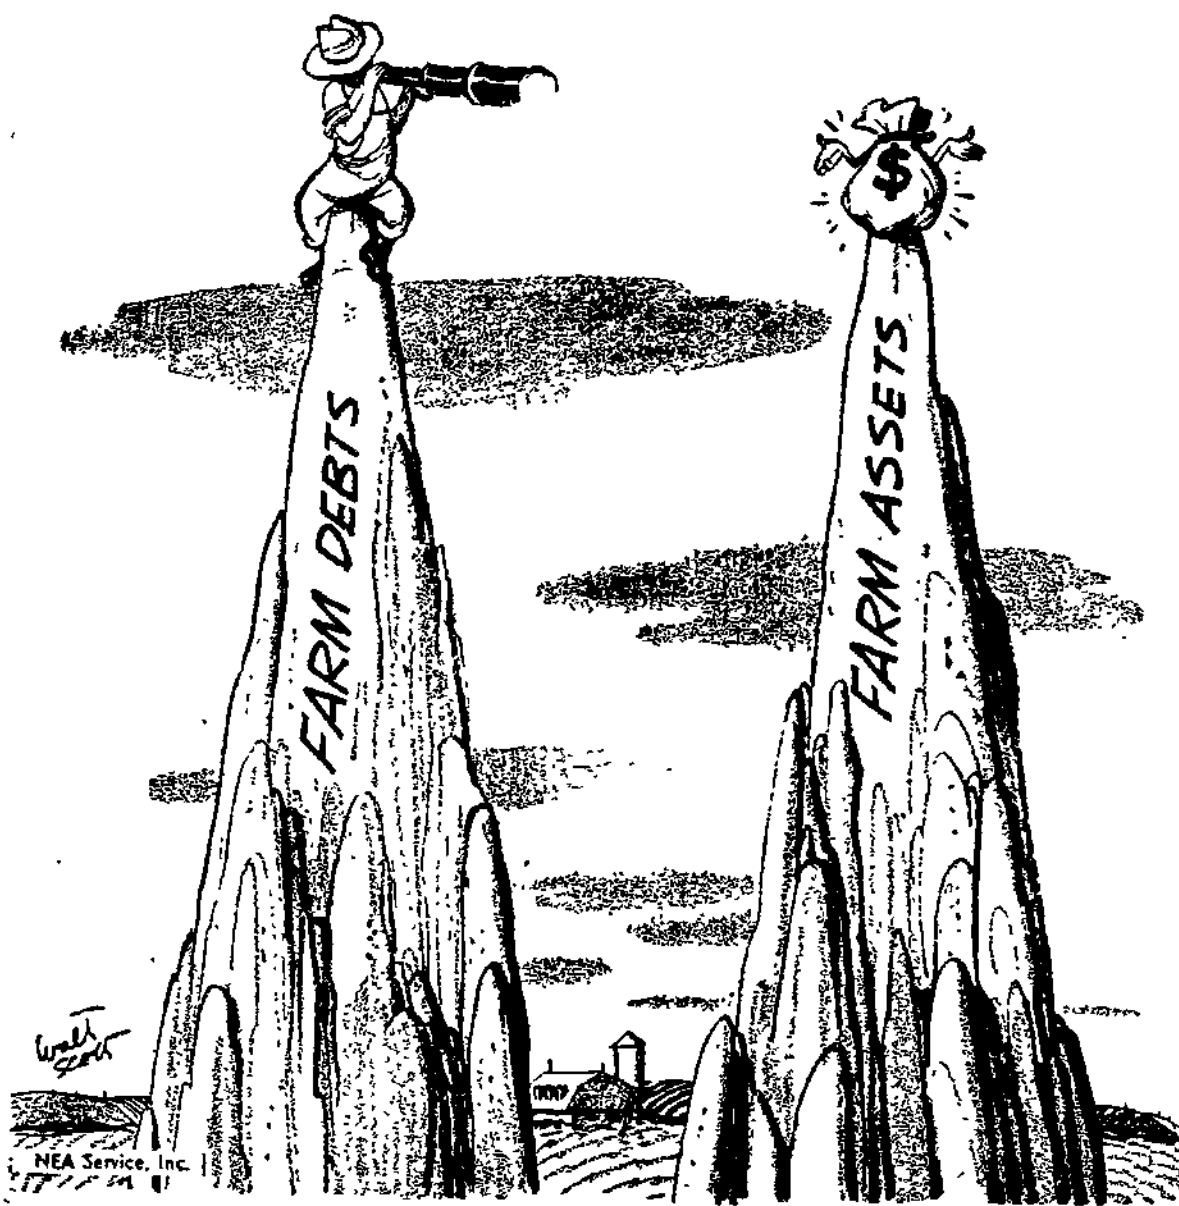

Now if they can just get Eddie Fisher to sing the inevitable theme song, and have actor Tab Hunter run around addressing the nation's youth to promote the film, they may really stagger the box office. Indeed, if even half this prospect comes to pass, television may be dead.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.—Rev. 2:7.

The whole creation is following my life, is involved in my triumph. . . . Every little calamity or temptation I overcome, every weakness I uproot, brightens the future of the world.—Frederick Brooks.

New Twin Peaks

Here and There

It is with a feeling of deep sorrow that we note the passing of another long-time friend who has been a source of much help on various occasions over the years, especially in investigating coroner cases in the southwestern end of the county. We have in mind Elmer A. Peterson, 48, prominent and personable funeral director for more than 14 years in Titusville, where he will long be remembered as a local sports enthusiast. He had been in the Titusville Hospital for a heart condition for a long time but had improved enough to permit him to get out of bed a few minutes a day. However, he suffered an attack Tuesday night and failed to rally. After graduation from the Cincinnati College of Embalming in October, 1929, he worked in funeral homes in Erie, Cambridge Springs and Bradford before establishing his own funeral home in Titusville in December, 1941. Since that time the Warren county coroner's office has had many occasions to make use of his willing assistance and experience, and we always found him anxious to serve. Affectionately known as "Pete," he was greatly interested in the Titusville High School. He aided various sports groups and often provided transportation to out-of-town school games as well as other services. An athlete in his youth he starred in football and basketball teams against Warren during his four years at the Titusville High School where he graduated in 1928. He was captain of the 1926 football team, captain-elect of the 1927 varsity basketball team and first vice president of the High School Varsity Club in 1926-27. He is a brother of Glenn Peterson, formerly of the Struthers Wells Co. in this city, who was transferred to Titusville some years ago. Other survivors include his wife, two children, another brother and sister.

According to word from that area Chautauque-Erie grape belt growers are hanging on the brink of disaster as long range weather forecasts give little hope for decent ripening of a bumper grape crop. Processing firms are setting up field tests of sugar content to help growers to determine which of their vineyards are ready to be picked first and it is apparent that there probably will be a general price differential for ripe and semi-ripe grapes. The processors are still leery about forecasting any opening dates on the crushing season. "Guess times" run between October 8th and 15th, with the anticipation that the former probably will mark the start on Fredonias and the latter the Concord starting date.

CIO-PAC Staged the Coup For Democrats in Maine

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Republican National Committee Chairman Leonard Hall blames the Congress of Industrial Organizations-Political Action Committee for the surprise strength Maine Democrats showed in the Pine Tree state's early election.

"They pulled their supporters and turn out the vote. The drive was well financed with CIO-PAC money."

"Though it's an echo of Republican complaints in 1944, 1948 and 1952, Hall's reference to CIO-PAC is correct insofar as Maine goes. Nationally, political activities of the merged American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations are supposed to be carried on by a new, greater, combined Committee on Political Education—COPE.

But in Maine, AFL and CIO unions haven't carried out unification yet. Each goes its separate political way.

REPORTS TO Washington from Maine GOP leaders indicate that the AFL unions, though stronger and having more members than the CIO, took no active part in electioneering.

Benjamin J. Dorsky, president of the AFL State Federation of Labor was reported leaning towards the Republicans. Dorsky wants to be head of the combined AFL-CIO organization in Maine when the state merger comes off. Since he wants this job worse than he wants to be known as a GOP politician, he stayed out of the national political campaign.

It was the CIO Textile Workers Union and Paperworkers of America who turned the trick. Denis Blais, secretary-treasurer of the Maine CIO Industrial Union Council is given credit for organizing the registration drive and then getting out the vote.

They concentrated on Maine's western, first and second congressional districts, where most of the industries are.

BLAIS FOLLOWED the latest approved union political action technique of organizing quietly. He conducted no big publicity drive. He organized to reach individual voters. CIO-PAC worked closely, but behind the Democratic state organization under young Frank M. Coffin of Lewiston.

The result was that Coffin was elected to Congress from the second district.

In the first district the race between the incumbent Republican Rep. Robert Hale and Democrat James C. Oliver is so close that a recount is probable.

Returns from the industrial cities of Lewiston, Augusta, Waterville, Biddleford and Saco show the registration drive increased the Democratic vote by over 8,000. The Republican vote was more than 800 below the 1954 total.

UNION LABOR political action is not credited with having as great an effect on the re-election of popular Democratic Gov. Edmund S. Muskie.

The total vote for Muskie ran 33,000 higher than the total vote for the three Democratic congressional candidates.

All this has thrown a good-sized warning into GOP leaders in Washington.

This accounts in large measure for the new GOP emphasis on increasing registration and getting out the vote. As Chairman Hall puts it, "Complacency among Republicans is our worst enemy."

season. "Guess times" run between October 8th and 15th, with the anticipation that the former probably will mark the start on Fredonias and the latter the Concord starting date.

Yesterday's "Meet-The-Candidate" reception at the YWCA reminds of Republican rally that was held in the Library theatre fifty years ago, September 28, 1906, which was described in part by The Democratic Evening Times in this manner: "The Republicans held a meeting last evening in the Library theatre. There was a gathering of ladies and minors present with a few voters scattered here and there throughout the audience. The house had been decorated with one or two large American flags, while red, white and black bunting was used over the balcony railings. Some chairs had been placed on the stage and after lengthy roll of secretaries had been called, those who hold office in the vicinity went up and sat down. James Brann, C. W. Stone and other prominent Republicans were conspicuous by their absence. It was a small crowd and enthusiasm was at a low ebb. Special trains from every nook and corner had been provided to bring in the voters to aid in firing the opening gun. To further augment the crowd Chairman Farshall had sent out about 500 or more special invitations to people in the county, but only about 75 responded."

YOUNG AT HEART—Javier Pereira, reputedly 167 years old, proves he's young at heart as he plants a kiss on the cheek of stewardess Januita Winterrite, 26, of Miami, upon his arrival in Miami from Bogota, Colombia. Pereira is 4 feet, four inches tall, and weighs only 75 pounds. He was flown to New York so experts at the Cornell Medical Center can study him to determine his secret of longevity. Medical examinations in South America indicated he is at least 150 years old and possibly 167.

Most Major Industries Reveal Optimism Over the Prospects For Coming Fall and Winter

New York (AP)—Optimism over business prospects in the coming months could scarcely be higher today—except in the stock market and among some of the more cautious of the financial fraternity. The roll call of those seeing good times ahead covers most of the major industries, retail trade and even many of the farmers, whose income in the last three months has risen about nine percent over a year ago, according to good times of late by raising prices on many things, to pass along recent increases in labor and material costs—and so far at least the price hikes seem to be sticking, although the consumer hasn't been heard from yet at the retail level.

The steel industry says orders in sight mean capacity business for some time to come with a continuing scramble by users for some steel products in short supply.

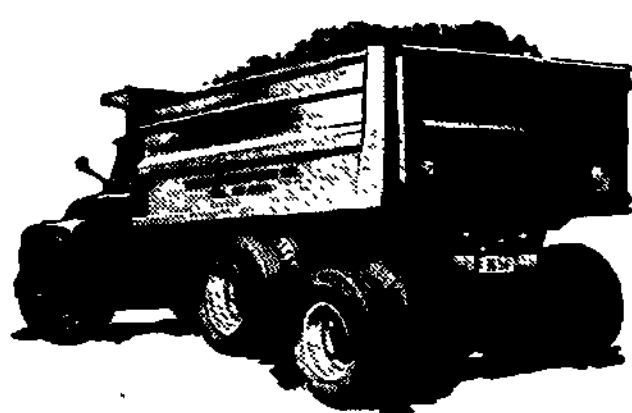

Aluminum men are equally optimistic and preparing for further expansion to take care of expected increased demand. But the copper producers, for the first time in many months, are finding stocks on hand increasing.

The auto industry insists that in spite of higher prices the new models will prove irresistible to the consumers. This is a chronic state of belief in Detroit at this season of the year. Auto makers shrug off the record size of installment debt still owned by consumers and the tightness of money in general.

So do the merchants. Retail trade has been running above a year ago. Fattened pocketbooks of workers who have received wage increases and swelling employment totals make merchants sure this will be their merriest Christmas. And many store keepers are plugging for more charge accounts and other time payment plans.

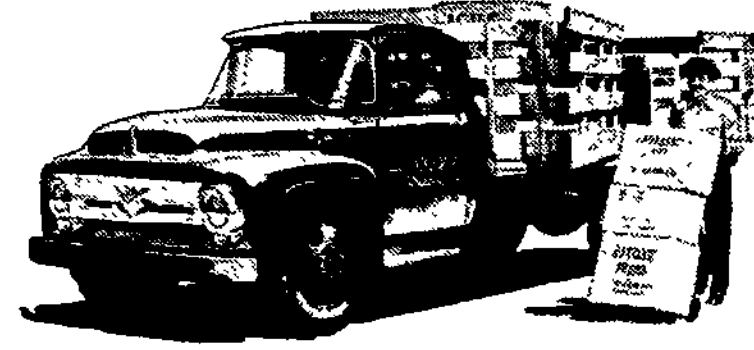

Appliance makers—who, like the auto makers, haven't been having as good a year as last—also count on rising personal incomes to jack up sales of TV sets, washers and refrigerators. In many cases, if the customers do show up at the stores they'll find higher prices this fall.

Ford tandem axle BIG JOBS are rated to carry more payload than comparable tandems of any of the leading manufacturers. T-800 model has max. GVW of 45,000 lb.—GCW is 65,000 lb.

Ford's F-100 Custom panel is one of the top load carriers in its class. It provides 155.8 cu. ft. of cargo space in a smooth, fully lined interior and hauls up to 1,535 lb. of payload.

The hardest-working, biggest-saving "two-tonner" of them all is the Ford F-600. Only Ford offers a Short Stroke Six and three Short Stroke V-8's in this field. Max. GVW is 19,500 lb.

FOR BIG JOBS... SMALL JOBS... ALL JOBS

Ford Trucks cost less

And low first cost is only your first saving

Ford's F-100 pickup with 8-ft. box is the biggest in the half-ton class—up to 19 cu. ft. more load-space than the others. Regular 6 1/2-ft. box with a full 45 cu. ft. capacity also available.

COME IN TODAY!

Before you buy your next truck, look at both sides of Ford's story of value. Check what you get and what it costs. You'll like what you see.

Look at the costs. Ford's first cost is low. Resale value is high. Modern Short Stroke engines—V-8 or Six—are designed for less friction, less wear, lower running costs. Maintenance costs are lower, too, because Ford trucks are built stronger for rugged long life. And a 10-million truck study proves Ford trucks last longer.

Look at what you get and you'll see you get more for your money in a Ford. For example, more horsepower per dollar—proved by a comparison of factory-suggested list prices and net horsepower of all truck lines. You get more comfort with a Driverized Cab, and more safety with Ford's exclusive Lifeguard features.

Look carefully... consider everything. You'll agree Ford trucks cost less, give you more. If you want a great deal—a great deal more for your money—see your Ford Dealer.

FORD TRUCKS LAST LONGER

Using latest registration data on 10,502,351 trucks, insurance experts prove Ford trucks last up to 9.9% longer.

Grown Children Inclined To Get Out Rocking Chair

HERE is one woman's formula for living her own life instead of leading the kind of life her grown children think she ought to. She sums it up thus: "I listen to all my children's advice—then do as I please."

That's not a bad formula for any parent whose children are grown and leading busy lives of their own. For too often grown children force their parents into settling down to grow old long before it is necessary.

The children think they are doing right and they are sure their advice is best when they start saying "I think you ought to do this" and "you shouldn't do that."

Often all the children are doing is trying to avoid worry. They would worry about Mother living alone, driving across the country, taking a paid job or whatever it is she feels perfectly capable of doing.

And so they try to get her to do something more suitable from their point of view. It simply means they are asking her to stop taking chances, to take the easy way out, to lean on them instead of trying to stand alone.

WHY BE MADE OLD PREMATURELY?

THAT is really asking the older person to give up and quit living. You can't maintain independence or really live your own life if you aren't free to take a few well-calculated risks, to put up with some inconveniences, to do a few things that take all your courage and strength.

Don't think a parent is headstrong if he listens patiently to your ideas about how he should live and then does exactly as he pleases. That spirit of independence shows he is still young.

And why should you try to make an old person out of one who in self-reliance, courage and independence is every bit as young as you are?

Is Tidioute Bride

JoAnn Hoffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Hoffman, Tidioute, and John A. Mellon repeated their wedding vows September 8 in St. John's church, Father Edward Jacobs officiating. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Carl Rosequist presented a recital of wedding music. Miss Robert Schwab sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Mother At Thy Feet," and Mrs. Roger Glettenberger sang "Ave Maria" by Rosewig and "On This Day."

The bride's gown of white silk bombazine was floor length with applique of hand-clipped Alencon lace, the empire bodice featuring a portrait neckline and short sleeves. A Juliet cap trimmed with seed pearls held her fingertip veil of silk illusion and her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, gift of the bridegroom. To complete her ensemble, she carried her mother's white prayer book, covered with white baby mums, ivy sprays and white satin ribbons, centered with a white orchid.

Ann Miskimon, in emerald green, was maid of honor, bridesmaids were Mrs. Jack McIntyre and Virginia Albright, in burnt orange and bronze, respectively. Their gowns were identically designed.

Guests were present from Chicago, Ill.; Niagara, N. Y.; Youngstown, O.; Pittsburgh, Franklin, Waterford, Youngsville, Warren, Tonesta and Tidioute.

For a wedding trip to Chicago the bride chose a dark green dress, black accessories and a white orchid.

Returning, the newlyweds will reside at 415 Allen street, Tidioute. Both are graduates of Tidioute High. Mrs. Mellon is 1954, her husband one year earlier. Prior to her marriage, she was employed by New Process Company, while he is a Titusville employee of Struthers Wells.

Pre-nuptial parties were given the bride by Mrs. Charles Coughlin, New Castle, and Mrs. Delbert Sedon, Warren. The rehearsal party was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

MANNERS MAKE FRIENDS

WHEN a secretary is making a telephone call for her employer she should identify herself as his secretary. It is much better to be specific and say, "This is Miss Green, secretary to Mr. Smith of Smith and Williams," than "This is Miss Green of Smith and Williams."

Prompt identification is a help in any telephone conversation.

Take Ten Tips From Moving Men

Anticipate Problems, Ease Journey to New Home

BY KAY SHERWOOD, NEA Staff Writer

ON the move this fall? Whether the move is within the city limits or across the country, most homemakers regard the approach of moving day with nervous confusion.

In addition to being an emotional wrench to leave a familiar home for an unfamiliar dwelling, every smidgen of household furnishings, clothing, and appliances must be organized. And that can be a tedious, tiring task.

There are ways of making the move less painful and easier on the family. I've moved three times in five years, both long-distance and locally, and I can't say that I've enjoyed the actual operation.

Here are tips from moving experts, some of which I've tried and found useful, others which are new to me but sound workable in nature.

1. Call in a reputable mover and get an estimate of costs. Long-distance rates are regulated by the Interstate Commerce and Public Service Commissions.
2. Local moves are charged on an hourly basis. If you're in doubt about the reputation of a mover, check with past customers or the local Better Business Bureau.
3. On a short, in-town haul, we saved money by hiring local movers to cart the heavy items (major furniture and appliances and rugs) and friends helped us transport the smaller items in a rented trailer. (Note: Make arrangements for adequate insurance.)
4. Line up the mover several weeks in advance. Local movers can bill you later but, according to ICC laws, long-distance moving must be paid for in cash, certified check or money order before your possessions will be turned over to you.
5. It's wise to know in advance exactly how much you'll owe.
6. Make daily lists of things to be done and check off as you go. If you have an attic, basement or garage full of stored items, get these areas in hand first.
7. If you're doing your own packing, get a drum or barrel for breakable dinnerware and use plenty of newspapers for wrapping and cushioning items, graduating from heaviest and largest pieces at the bottom to light and fragile pieces on top.
8. Don't overload cartons or crates. It's much less strain to move two small, light cartons than one big, heavy one.
9. Leave drawers in chests and cabinets but don't fill them with heavy or breakable items. Pack them with bedding, pillows or other lightweight material and seal them with masking tape.
10. Tape keys to cabinets and out casters in bags, then tape to furniture. Tape envelopes of screws for towel bars to the bars. Seal corks and stoppers of opened bottles of liquids with masking tape, paraffin or nail polish. Never pack flammables such as cleaning fluids or matches.
11. Have large appliances such as refrigerators, television sets, freezers, washing machines and stoves disconnected, defrosted and serviced for moving.
12. Many movers refuse to be responsible for shipping a loaded freezer, although there are exceptions, depending on the length of the haul. Check this item with your mover.
13. To speed unloading, label cartons and furniture according to the rooms where you'll want them placed. (Some movers advise using different colored slips for different rooms.)
14. Secure labels with cellophane tape on mirrors, glass or marble tops; use masking tape on wood finishes. Use a heavy black crayon on cartons if you care to, but be sure the writing is legible.
15. Freshly laundered linens and curtains can be folded and packed in a good sign of advance planning is the label which homemaker is taping to mirror, prior to start of moving operations. Labeling of furnishings speeds loading and unloading procedures.
16. board tubes and secured with paper and tape to prevent creasing.
17. On moving day, farm out the children with friends or relatives if you can, especially the baby. Pack a picnic lunch, and (marvelous idea) a basket filled with soap, towels and other bathroom necessities which will be needed while you're settling in the new home.
18. If possible, have shelves and closets cleaned and ready for articles before you start to unpack.
19. Arrange in advance to have a serviceman on hand to hook up major appliances. Let the menfolk set up the heavy furnishings; save your strength for the million small things that must be stored in place.
20. (I usually make the beds first so tired youngsters and adults can turn in early.)
21. If you are unpacking by yourselves (without the movers) be sure to cart containers and packing materials outside as quickly as they are emptied.
22. This not only reduces the confusion, it removes a potential

"How Many Pounds Would YOU Like to Lose?"

easy reducing science now helps you take off your fat while you eat the foods you choose

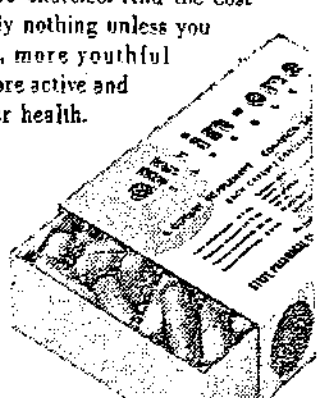

Do you like sweets, candy, cake, butter, gravy, potatoes? Have you tried one thing after another to reduce, spent dollar after dollar for pills and tablets and in spite of everything you've tried you're still too fat? Well, be as skeptical as you like, but now, right now, there's a wonderful new kind of capsule that helps you take off pounds and inches of ugly fat safely, quickly and so much easier you hardly know what's happening. You don't suffer starvation dieting hunger, you take no drugs, you don't exercise. In fact, you don't even diet one bit more than you want to, because you automatically eat less and here's why...

counteracts hunger

Just recently a well known scientist perfected a new tiny capsule that combines not one but ALL THE RECOGNIZED proven aids to reducing. It combines the vitamins and minerals often lost when cutting off fattening foods containing these needed vitamins and minerals. It combines the vegetable cellulose that has no calories, yet expands when it absorbs water, thereby helping give the feeling of a full contented stomach. In fact, these tiny capsules are so packed with vitamins and minerals, protein and non-caloric filling food, they actually equal and exceed many a meal.

fat goes fast

You'll be surprised at the fat you lose the first week, the inches that disappear, no hunger, no strict dieting, no drugs, no exercise. And the cost is absolutely nothing unless you grow slim, more youthful looking, more active and enjoy better health.

CERTIFIED SAFE

We certify that All-in-One Capsules are entirely safe for human consumption. Signed: Paul W. Stokesberry, Dir. American Research Labs., Chicago, Ill.

This fund is raised entirely through the sale of peanut crunch, coconut crisp and mints which sell for 75c per can. The candy is available from September to May and can be obtained by calling the Finance Chairman, Mrs. Margaret Drivas, Phone 1137.

In addition to their major project, the cancer fund, the BPW contributes locally to:

Community Chest

Red Cross

Warren High School Commercial Student Award

Children's Aid

Jaycee's July 4 Celebration

Rental Share of Warren Welcome Sign

Warren Dragon

Future Business Leaders of America

Cash gift to three needy families at Christmas

To meet these contributions, the club plans to have a rummage sale at the former Federal Store Building on Sept. 21st and 22nd.

Many Finish Course in Parliamentary Law

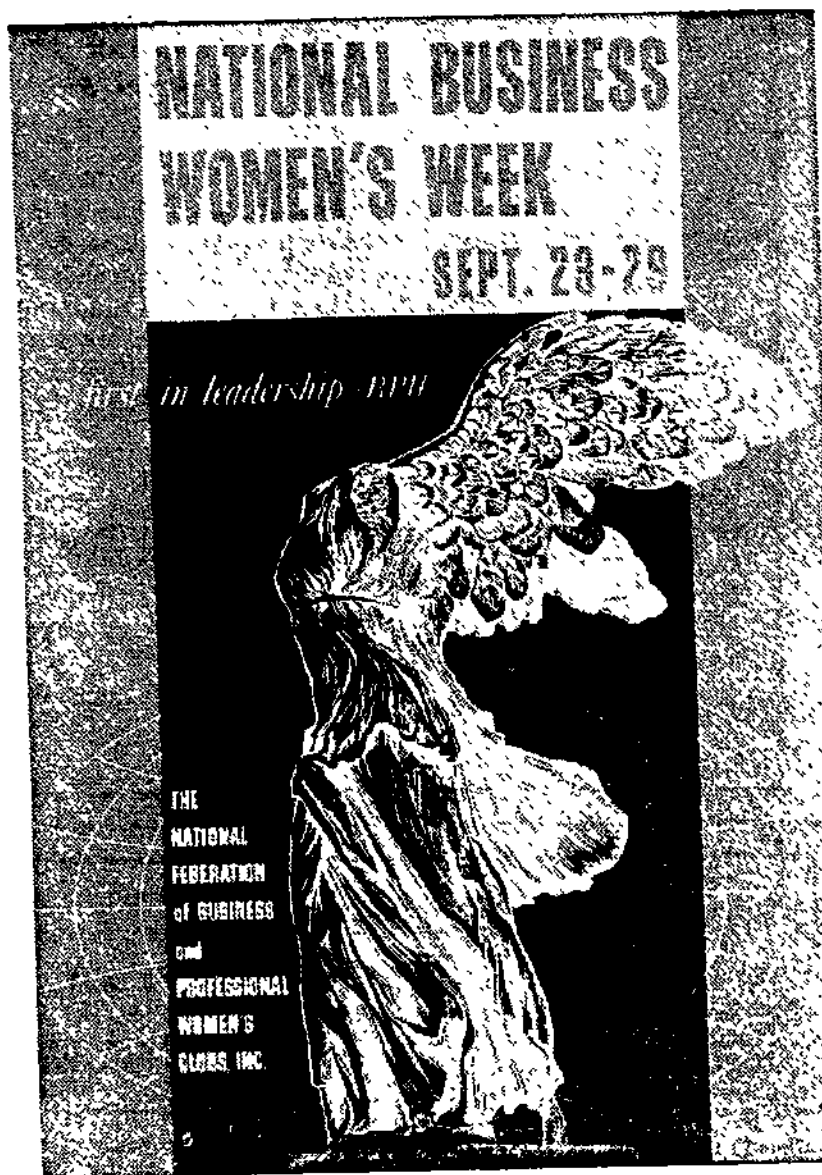

Continually seeking ways to improve the club, the following members completed the Parliamentary Law course given by Mr. K. Earl Abel at the YWCA last year: Misses Peg McGonnell, Arvilla Ittel, Anna Jane Hawkins, MayBelle Bairstow, Mina Rieder, Jeane Steele, Helen Boiney and Mrs. Marion Davis.

Miss Emma Christian represents the BPW on the Citizens Committee for the new High School while Miss MayBelle Bairstow represents them in the same capacity for the new Swimming Pool project.

The yearly membership campaign is under way with Miss Eleanor Smith, Membership Chairman, in charge.

In 1954, with the ground work laid by Misses Peg McGonnell and Miss Helen Boiney, the Warren BPW club chartered the Kane Club with 45 members. This Club has been of service to the Kane Community with their interest in the Heart Campaign, Milk for the "Children the Milkman Forgot" Fund and their work in visiting shut-ins. They instigated the move which resulted in several traffic lights to be installed in Kane in the near future.

The window display in the Warren National Bank was arranged by Mrs. Charlotte Stokes and Miss Viola Flowers.

The Winged Victory of Samothrace was adopted as the National Federation emblem in 1921 at the Cleveland Convention. Now in the Louvre in Paris, the statue is one of the finest remaining Greek sculptures. Erected around 306 B.C. in memory of a naval victory, the figure was represented on the prow of a ship as a symbol of triumphant womanhood, with the Wand of the Herald, the Flaming Torch, the Open Scroll of Learning and the Ship of State as surrounding motifs.

Thirty-Two Names on Charter Of the Warren B. P. W. Club

The Warren Business and Professional Women's Club, 18 years old in May of this year, was organized through the efforts of Edna Thompson Stone, at that time a member of the Youngsville Club.

The 32 members had as their first slate of officers: President, Corinne Dean; Vice-President, Mary Haben; Corresponding Secretary, Ann Tillard; Recording Secretary, Helen Fultz; Treasurer, Verna McDowell. Of the original charter members, six are still active in club affairs: Alice Pearson Forbes, Ellen Thoreson, Doris Peterson Tillard, Ruth Woodin, Emma Aiken and Edna Thompson Stone.

Through the years the following have served as club presidents: Ruth Forbes, Callie Mead, Louise Neily, Ruth Fenderson, Ruth Karr Rapp, Edna Thompson Stone, Elizabeth Brasington, Margaret Drivas, Mina Rieder and Arvilla Ittel, who today leads the group of 83 members.

The club is affiliated with the National Federation of Business and Professional Women. This national federation is the largest and oldest national organization for women who work and was founded in 1919, as the result of a call issued by Secretary of War, Newton D. Baker, for coordinated womanpower. BPW is the only national organization for women who work, including all businesses and professions.

In 1930, BPW took the lead in founding The International Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, which now has Federations in 20 countries. All members of the Warren BPW are also members in the International organization.

Local Club Best Known for Aid In Cancer Drive

Locally the Warren Business and Professional Women's Club is best known for their interest in the Cancer Project.

In 1943, Dr. Bacon of Erie, Pennsylvania Division Chairman for the Professional Education for the American Cancer Society, came to Warren to organize a local unit. Little action was taken until 1947, when Mrs. James Miller of Harrisburg, the field representative for this area, contacted Mrs. Ruth Karr Rapp, then the President of the Business and Professional Women's Club, and asked if the club would sponsor it. In Warren County, The Club voted to sponsor the project and started by placing coin cans in various business places. The following year, in addition to placing the coin cans, they sent letters to a selected group and collected a considerable amount.

The project grew from year to year and the BPW now fully sponsors the crusade for cancer funds and is responsible for typing and mailing 10,000 letters which are sent to all parts of Warren County.

In addition to mailing the letters, last year the club members donated a total of 200 hours making 1,795 cancer dressings. They also sponsored the cancer tag days with high school girls recruited by Miss Jean Steele, a member of the club.

Mrs. Edna Thompson Stone and Miss Dorothy Baker have been County Captains. Miss Olive Phillips and Mrs. Ruth Rapp, Campaign Chairmen and Mrs. Janet Templeton a Co-Campaign Chairman. Members of the Board have been Misses Violet Peterson, Olive Phillips, Elizabeth Brasington, Martha Lupold and Mrs. Doris Tillard.

This year Miss Dorothy Baker is Vice-President, Mrs. Ruth Rapp, Secretary; Miss Martha Lupold, Service Chairman, and Miss Arvilla Ittel, Mrs. Marian Davis and Miss Sara Jane Hartman, Members of the Board.

Miss Mina Rieder of the club is the Executive Director.

THE COLLECT

Keep us, oh God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed. Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face—without self-pity and without prejudice. May we be never hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; make us to grow calm, serene, gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward, and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences, that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and, to know the great, common heart of us all, and, oh, Lord God, let us forget not to be kind!

Business Women Influence Car Design Says Ford

Henry Ford II, president of Ford Motor Company, points out that the business woman's requirements have influenced designs in modern cars. Mr. Ford says:

"I have become increasingly aware in the last several years of the influence of the business and professional woman in the design of our cars. This influence is very evident in comparing our 1956 models with pre-war cars. The woman who requires a car to drive to and from her office, in addition to pleasure trips, has altered today's automobiles to meet her special requirements. She has led the way to cars that are easier to drive, more comfortable to sit in and more adaptable to a variety of uses. Knowing that women have effected these and other refinements in the cars we make, I feel certain that their impact on other industries has been equally significant and, without doubt, will continue to be so."

Bible Words for Today

MARK 8:34—"If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me." (RSV)

In that day the cross was not a symbol of salvation, but an instrument of torturing execution. It was as if Jesus had said, "Let him get a rope and hang himself." This does not mean to court martyrdom. No reader of these lines is likely to suffer more than mildest persecution, and probably hardly that. Nor does cross-bearing mean those slights, disappointments, illnesses, disasters and even death to which all humanity is heir. None of these is cross-bearing.

In Jesus' time it would have been foolish to offer a cross-bearing man a fortune or high office, for, being about to die, they could have no meaning. Cross-bearing is living without thought or desire of wealth, honors, power, prestige or glory, but rather spending one's self in giving one's self away where others may be most helped.

Weatherman Says It Will Warm Up With A Chance of Rain

Pittsburgh (AP)—Cold air from Canada moved into western Pennsylvania early today and dropped temperatures to below freezing in many parts.

The coldest spot was Philipsburg where the mercury dipped to 26 degrees. It was 27 at Brookville and 34 at Pittsburgh, a record low for the date.

The topcoat weather will remain throughout the day with a high of 50. Scattered frost is forecast for tonight but it will be fair and not as cold.

The weatherman says it will be a little warmer and cloudy tomorrow with a chance of rain by night.

St. Marys reported an unofficial low of 25 and Butler 29. There was some snow in scattered parts of Warren County.

The chilly 34 at Pittsburgh broke two weather records. The previous low for the date was 38 in 1897, and the lowest reading so early in the season was 35 in 1937.

Motorists traveling the highways of southeastern Pennsylvania in the early morning hours encountered windshield icing conditions.

The pressure area was expected to move slowly eastward, bring a gradual return to more normal temperatures in the next 24 hours. At the same time the skies were expected to remain clear and sunny over most of the state.

Woodrow Jensen of Jensen's Paint Shop on Pennsylvania avenue, east was standing behind his car unloading boxes of paint about 7:45 o'clock last night when a vehicle careened off the back left bumper and fender narrowly missing Jensen.

The car continued west on Penna. avenue but the license plate number had been secured. Police picked up Angus Bailey of RD 2, Warren, and charged him with leaving the scene of an accident without identifying himself.

Locked up over night, Angus pleaded guilty to the charge when arraigned before Peace Justice Ervine N. Branch this morning. He waived a hearing and was bound over to court, free on $1,000 property bond.

dent, grinning widely, rose through the open plexiglass dome of his specially designed car to signal his delight at each contingent of roadside voters.

Greeted by about 2,000 persons at the Des Moines airport, Eisenhower found another turnout of about the same number lining the street at Adel. At Minburn there were 300 and near Perry about 2,500. At Ogden there were 500 cheering spectators who waved back enthusiastically as the President, hatless but in top coat, gave them his victory salute.

BALLET BUCKS

Moscow (AP)—The world-famous Bolshoi Theatre ballet troupe today refused to make a scheduled London appearance—its first in the West—because of British refusal to quash shoplifting charges against a Soviet woman discuss champion.

GASTALL MISSING

Bulletin

Baltimore (AP)—Tommy Gastall, 23-year-old bonus catcher for the Baltimore Orioles, landed and took off from an Eastern Shore airport about 10 minutes before his light plane apparently went down in Chesapeake Bay just before sundown last night.

This was reported today by Stanley Manette, manager of the field at Easton, Md.

Gastall has been missing since he radioed a distress signal at 6:31 p. m. It was his second solo flight.

Final Reminder For Hunter Folder Listing

Persons wishing to be listed in the folder "Accommodations for Hunters, Fishermen and Tourists in Warren County, 1956-1957 Season" are asked to have their questionnaires in at the Chamber of Commerce office by Monday, September 24.

Any person who has rooms or cabins to rent for the hunting season and wishes to be listed free of charge in the folder should call the Chamber office, 470, on Monday and make arrangements to be listed. Those who were in the directory last season have received questionnaires by mail but anyone who has accommodations for rent is welcome as an addition to the list.

The Chamber of Commerce compiles the folder each year as a public service and distributes 5,000 of them throughout this state and nearby states. The demand for these directories from hunters is especially big as hundreds of them come to Warren County each fall for deer season and choose their accommodations from this publication.

SOLUTION EXPECTED

Sleuthing has stayed behind the scenes this week as investigation continued in the "Great Hubcap Theft." Busy with larger thefts from county oil leases, investigative agencies are now back on the trail of the demented culprit who wrenched off four hubcaps two weekends ago and disappeared. "Big Joe" Casamento, head of Venturatown Detective Bureau, has thrown the weight of his department into the hunt as further leads point north. The victim has sworn "Hubcaps or Hang".

Malone Emphasizes the Importance of Voting

Uniontown (AP)—James F. Malone, former Allegheny County District Attorney, last night told a rally of Republican women the GOP "can win in November, but we must go to the polls and vote."

Speaking at the annual picnic of the Uniontown Council of Republican women near Farmington, Malone said:

"I was defeated last fall for reelection by an average of but three votes in Allegheny County's 1,100-plus precincts. I was defeated because too many Republicans and Democrats didn't believe I could be licked and they failed to go to the polls.

"Now there are too many people who feel like can't be defeated. He can be defeated and he will if the people don't vote in November."

Dragons Plan To Play It Cool Tonight In Titusville

Broken Field Running To Be The Rockets Favorite Weapon In Warren's First Night Out

Playing a wide open brand of razzle-dazzle football that's the trademark of a fast, light team, the Titusville Rockets tonight will be out to avenge a 43-13 loss last year to Warren's championship Dragons. Game time is 8:30 p. m. under the lights at Carter Field.

The Titusville eleven breaks into play from a T-formation with flanker most of the time, giving its speedy backfield a chance to spin wide and far, then bolt.

Dragon Coach Fred Bell who spotted the shifty ball club when they defeated Oil City 12-6 in the season's opener, said the club looked very good and he predicts "trouble."

Back of the Titusville line will be the same quartet of "scatters" who take advantage of a split second's carelessness. Rapid Howie Sampson and Olson crouch at the half, Crissman is at quarter and in the fullback slot is Warner who will be remembered for his 85-yard touchdown kickoff return in the Dragon game last year.

Warren will be somewhat penalized by the loss of one of its staunchest linemen, right guard Hank Lauman, who will be out the rest of the season with a wrenched back. Coming to the position are sophomore Dave Sedwick on offense and senior John Salerno on defense.

Another disadvantage facing the Dragons is its first game under lights this year. Coach Bell stated a passing attack could bog under the unfamiliar lighting conditions.

Predicted weather of clear but cold, plus distance to travel, is expected to reduce substantially the great crowds which turned out for the Dragon's first two home games. Home scores were split, with Warren dropping the opener to Perry, 7-6, then bouncing back to subdue Franklin, 13-0.

After taking Oil City in its opener, Rockets dropped a wide open contest to Mill Creek last week, 26-18.

Uncle Amos Back Again With His Classic Football Forecast

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOFLE
Blocker For Ted Coy

Ugad! A hearty hullo and halloo to my millions of readers from your peerless prognosticator!

Ah, yes; we are back again, ready to add sparkle and brilliance to your favorite sports pages with our weekly football forecast—har-rumph!

Um-hak! By train, plane and pack mule, your correspondent has been scouting the colleges, peering through knotholes at secret practice, and sneaking into chalk talks disguised as the janitor. We are not leaving it all this year to our valued assistant, Dr. Leslie Zlobotny, the astronomer.

Surprise! Yes, we have a few for you in the opening games, Sept. 22. Texas will upset mighty Southern California in a tense struggle that will be decided in what I call the forward wall. Another upset will be William and Mary over Wake Forest, avenging the defeat of last year.

The Southwest will do very well in the intercollegiate games. My own personal scouting leads me to select Rice over Alabama, Baylor over California, Texas Christian over Kansas and Texas A. and M. over Villanova.

The only fly in the Southwest's ointment will be Notre Dame over Southern Methodist in a battle of passes.

Another victory which will avenge a defeat of last year will be Kansas State's triumph over Oklahoma A. and M. The rest of my forecast runs pretty closely to

Mighty Knights Practice in Snowstorm for Eagle Contest

If raw conditioning means anything, Northern Area Knights should hold a slight edge over Youngsville Eagles when they rekindle an old rivalry on the Sugar Grove High School gridiron Saturday afternoon at 1:30.

Thursday afternoon about 4 o'clock, while the Knights were practicing near the new Eisenhower School, a blinding snowstorm swirled around the squad as they went over plays.

And the Knights, because of their trial by snow, are expected to make quite a game of it tomorrow against the Eagles. The two teams fought to a 13-13 deadlock last year.

Running from a straight T, a formation which saw the Knights defeat Sheffield last week, 13-0, the boys from Northern Area will have one less starter as "Red" Devereaux dropped from competition as first string defensive end. Knights probable starting lineup is: Dave Rockwell, re; Larry Welch, rt; John Feeny, rg; Jim English, c; Jerry Angove, lg; Fred McKinney or Bob Dart, lt; Merle Wightman, le; Lefty Olson, qb; Bob McCoy, lb; Bud Rowland, rb; Jim Dart, fb.

Youngsville's probable starting lineup: Albert Schenck, le; Baker Marshall, lt; Bill Darling, lg; Jim Smith, c; Bob Wimer, rg; Check Kulback, rt; John McCanna, re; Don Dinnny, qb; Jack Brenne-man, lb; Joe Inter, rh; Fred McCasney, fb.

Youngsville lost to Brookville 26-12 in the season opener, then defeated Lawrence Park, 19-14 last week.

25-Lap Featured at Stateline Saturday: $1,500 Purse Sept. 29

Jamestown—Stateline Speedway Manager Len Briggs today announced a $1,500 purse 50-lap Trophy feature will wind up his stock car track's first season on September 29. A standard eight-event program with a 25-lap headline is scheduled this Saturday at 8:30 p. m.

The windup is labelled a Tri-State Championship and only drivers who have run two previous Stateline cards will be eligible to compete.

Now running into poor weather attendance-wise (last Saturday's program was halted by rain and the preceding one attracted only 900 patrons), Stateline and Briggs have high hopes that a capacity crowd will be on hand for the last appearance of 1949-50 models here this year.

At first glance the feature shapes up as a ding-dong battle between Jamestown's Joe Sauner and Emory Mahan of Warren, the two most consistent performers at the Cortwright Road track all year long.

Sauner ran up a string of three straight feature wins and along with fellow Jamestowner Sammy LaMancuso nailed down the big one, the 150-lap team race that was co-featured with the Jack Koolman Hell Drivers a few weeks back. But Mahan, who had been with his National Guard unit at Camp Drum, came back to win the next feature he raced in, whipping Sauner in the process.

Braves Must "Roll a Seven" To Retain Any Real Hopes of Getting Into World Series

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Are the Braves breathin'? Like a man with asthma. They have to roll a seven to hold any real hope for the National League pennant. And after losing 2-1 to Pittsburgh in 10 innings yesterday, even winning all their seven remaining games won't guarantee a thing for the Braves—who have been able to win as many as three in a row only once in the last two weeks.

Even by winning all seven, Milwaukee can't gain as much as a tie for the pennant unless Brooklyn's world champion Dodgers lose two of their remaining nine. The Braves, beginning to hear the jangle of another world series payoff, have won nine of their last 11 and took a full-game lead white idle yesterday.

The Braves had to battle from behind yesterday against Bob

Friend, who gave just four hits but almost missed his 16th victory when two errors on one play by first baseman Dale Long gave Milwaukee the tying run in the ninth. Then Roberto Clemente tagged reliever Ray Crone for a two-out single. Billy Bruton just couldn't get to in center field and Bill Mazeroski scrambled home with the winner.

No other games were played yesterday.

Going into a four-game series at Pittsburgh tonight, the Dodgers now are 3-1 favorites to win the pennant. It's 8-1 the race won't end in a tie.

It's Sal Maglie (11-4) against Ron Kline (13-16) with Sal seeking his seventh straight success and third in Brooklyn's current surge which has brought them to the top from a third place, two-games-behind deficit two weeks ago.

ONE-MAN GANG—Big Don Newcombe, ace Brooklyn hurler, is greeted by the balboys as he crosses home plate after crashing a homer in the 2nd inning of the Dodgers-Cards game in Brooklyn. Newcombe also hit a two-run circuit clout in the 3rd inning and added a stolen base as Brooklyn won, 17-2. It was Newcombe's 25th victory of the season against but six losses. Others in photo are umpire Frank Dascoli and St. Louis catcher Hal Smith.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

By The Associated Press

PITCHING — Bob Friend, Pirates, frustrated the pennant-pushing Braves on four hits, beating them for the third time this season, 2-1, in 10 innings for his 16th triumph.

HITTING — Roberto Clemente, Pirates, lined a two-out single to drive in the run that beat the Braves 2-1 in 10 innings.

Sheffield Takes On a Tough Dutch Team at St. Marys

Sheffield's Wolverines, defending champs of Allegheny Mountain League, are slated tonight to take on what will probably prove to be their toughest game of the year when they tackle St. Mary's Flying Dutchmen.

Sheffield Coach Ralph Santo has called the St. Mary's squad his best in ten years. The line averages 215 pounds and in the backfield is a constant threat in a six-foot, three-inch fullback who carries the mail at a furious pace.

The Dutchmen beat Port Allegheny 25-12 in the season opener, and last week rolled over the Kane Wolves, 32-0, racking up 26 of their points in the first quarter. Sheffield won their first game against the Warren JVs, 36-18, then dropped a tough one last week to Northern Area Knights, 13-0.

Sheffield's probable starting lineup is: Bob Miley, le; Tom Dunn, lt; Lester Schmidlen, lg; John Sleeman, c; Joe Goldthwaite, rg; Jerry Slater, rt; George Andrews, re; Tom Cashmere, qb; Tom McNeal, lb; Bill Johnson, rh; John Exley, fb.

The game at St. Marys tonight will be the Wolverines' first league encounter.

First Boy Scout Roundtable of Fall Season Is Well Attended

Approximately 50 persons attended the first fall Roundtable of the Chief Complanter Council, Boy Scouts of America which was held last night at the North Warren Community Center. Explorer Post 13 was the host and provided an opening ceremony plus refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Reporting on the 1957 Jamboree, Bob Anstadt, chairman, told the group that his committee has two applications for the International Jamboree next summer, three applications from leaders who wish to attend the Valley Forge Jamboree and a total of fourteen applications from seven different units for the Valley Forge Jamboree. He and Joe Wick emphasized that one reservation is being held each Troop and Post until November 1, at which time units requesting additional space will be awarded untaken reservations to fill the council quota of 28. The cost of the Jamboree to boys was announced as $90.00.

Jim Wright, O & E Chairman, discussed the Round-up plans paying particular emphasis to the adding of a den, patrol, or crew in existing units and the formation of new units.

Henry Walker, training chairman, showed advance manuals for new three session training programs for Cub Scout leaders, Boy Scout leaders and Explorer leaders. He stated that as soon as supplies of these may be obtained, courses for all three groups would be conducted. On October 13, a Junior Leader Training Conference is scheduled for Camp Jefferson, for the training of boy leaders in Scout Troops and Den Chiefs for Cub Packs. Units are urged to make early reservations, since the training committee plans to present special awards and to have chocolate milk on hand for the group.

Jim Blomquist, Commissioner, who presided, told the leaders that door knob hangers for the get-out-the-vote good turn were available at distribution points and should be hung on every door knob in the county on or about November 3, insofar as supplies last.

Elmer Morgan announced that boys cards are now made up by the National Council, and approximately 10 days will be required to get them back. He asked cooperation of all units in a good turn plan for October, details of which will be announced later. He also alerted units for a door to door distribution of circulars in the non-chest areas of the council during October.

Fred Watt conducted the separate Cub Leaders session. Boy Scout and Explorer leaders saw slides of the 1957 Jamboree and discussed details of the Chief Complanter participation in the 1957 Jamboree.

Jim Blomquist announced that the next Roundtable will be held October 18.

WCS members are holding their regular meeting in the Methodist church this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kleinbauer, Erie, were Sunday overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lyle. They were enroute to State College to take their son, Bill, to the university. Other visitors at the Lyle home have been Emery Geiser and Mr. Shaffer, Windber.

A large barn on the property of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cleaver burned to the ground Monday afternoon, after a cow and horse had been led to safety. The Cleavers just recently bought the property and moved there last week.

Luther Hassinger and son, Martin Luther Hassinger, Bristol, Va., have been recent visitors of Artel Houghton.

Margaret Titus, Shelton, Conn., and Mrs. Lillie Whitton, Warren, are guests this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaw.

Timely Information About Waterfowl Shooting in Canada

This information of interest to Pennsylvania hunters who journey to Canada in the fall to enjoy waterfowl shooting comes from the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests:

"Announcing the 1956 open seasons and bag limits for migratory birds in Ontario, the Honorable Clare E. Mapledoram . . . reminded sportsmen that a new departure in the regulation of migratory bird shooting will be made this year.

"Formerly these birds would be shot one half hour before sunrise on the opening day. This privilege was widely abused, with the result that this year the season does not open until noon. Once the opening day has passed, nimrods can hunt in the pre-sunrise and morning periods as before."

The release says that ducks, geese, rails, coots, gallinules, woodcock and Wilson's snipe may be hunted: northern district, noon September 15 to December 15; central district, noon September 29 to December 15; southern district, noon October 6 to December 15. There is one exception. In Essex County the open season for geese is from noon October 6 to December 31, incl.

The daily limits are: Ducks, 8, exclusive of mergansers, and not more than one wood duck. On geese the daily limit is 5.
